REGISTER OF COMMISSIONERS' INTERESTS

Government guidance on non-departmental public bodies (NDPBs) refers to the need for register of board members' interests appropriate to the body's activities to be kept. This should include, as a minimum, personal direct or indirect pecuniary interests, and any other interests considered relevant.

The guidance stipulates that the register of interests should be kept up-to-date and be open to the public. The entries below will be reviewed and updated on a regular basis.
